Story

Those wacky Chinese phantoms, Kyonshies, are on the loose again, wreaking havoc in eight villages. The Phantom Fighter, Kenchi, and his incompetent assistant have been called in to save the villages. Using special skills acquired from the Kung Fu master and items gathered throughout the villages, they must chop and kick their way to victory. But the contest is not all physical—as the Phantom Fighter, you have to answer some tricky quizzes before the master will reveal the secret skills that will help you defeat the Kyonshies.

There are eight villages in the game, each one filled with a variety of locations including houses, temples, graveyards, and a Kung Fu training school. The temple provides a place of rest, where Kenchi can regain strength. The training school gives Kenchi new skills to use throughout his journey.

You will not be able to see Kyonshies in front of buildings. They will appear as Kenchi moves among different locations in each village. Push button A in front of a building or graveyard to get more information about the location before you enter. To move, push the + button left or right. To enter a location in a village, push the upper part of the + button while standing at the door.

As soon as you enter a location in one of the villages, a Kyonshi will begin attacking. Beat him using kicks and punches. After defeating a Kyonshi, the door will open, and another Kyonshi will appear. When you beat all the Kyonshies in a location, the last door will open and the villagers will appear to give you important information and items to help you on your journey. When an item you have received disappears or breaks, you can go back to the same place and recapture it, but you will have to refight the Kyonshies in that area.

Items and Dialogue

Some villagers will give you important information when you talk to them, so make sure you get it. Also, you can receive items from them. Remember, there are no villagers in the house where jade can be found.

Ancient Scroll You need the Ancient Scroll to take lessons at the training hall.	Tonten: Mysterious Mirror. You can mesmerize Kyonshies for a while with the Tonten but do not use it often because it is very fragile.	Talisman You can only use it once to freeze Kyonshies.

Sacred Sword It can greatly help you beat Kyonshies, but it will break if used frequently.	Jade If you can get three Jades, you will be able to get into the house in each village where the boss Kyonshi lives.	Bell Secret item. Find out how to use it during the game.

How to Use Items and Power Up

To Use Items:

You can choose to use your items when the assistant appears at the exit of each location. You can only use one item at a time. To choose an item, push the + button up or down and press button A or B.

To Increase Power Using Skills:

Phantom Fighter can learn new tricks to beat Kyonshies at the Kung Fu training school. You will need to give scrolls to the master, who will then train you and show you new tricks. The scroll alone will not guarantee a meeting with the Kung Fu master if you fail to give the right answer to the guard's questions.

Game Continues

Whenever you clear a stage or the game is over, the assistant or villagers will appear to tell you the password. When you want to start a game again, carefully enter the password and you can start from the village where the last game finished with many of the same items.

To enter the password, use button A and the \oplus button. If the password is misspelled you will have to start from the beginning.
