IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION - READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES.

⚠ WARNING - Seizures

Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or black outs triggered by light flashes, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.

Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.

Parents should watch when their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child have any of the following symptoms:

Convulsions
Altered vision

Eye or muscle twitching
Involuntary movements

Loss of awareness
Disorientation

To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:

1. Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible.
2. Play video games on the smallest available television screen.
3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
4. Play in a well-lit room.
5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

⚠ WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries

Playing video games can make your muscles, joints or skin hurt after a few hours. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as Tendonitis, Carpal Tunnel Syndrome or skin irritation:

- Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- If your hands, wrists or arms become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
- If you continue to have sore hands, wrists or arms during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

⚠ WARNING - Battery Leakage

Leakage of battery acid can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Game Boy. If battery leakage occurs, thoroughly wash the affected skin and clothes. Keep battery acid away from your eyes and mouth. Leaking batteries may make popping sounds.

To avoid battery leakage:

- Do not mix used and new batteries (replace all batteries at the same time).
- Do not mix alkaline and carbon zinc batteries.
- Do not mix different brands of batteries.
- Do not use nickel cadmium batteries.
- Do not leave used batteries in the Game Boy. When the batteries are losing their charge, the power light may become dim, the game sounds may become weak, or the display screen may be blank. When this happens, promptly replace all used batteries with new batteries.
- Do not leave batteries in the Game Boy or accessory for long periods of non-use.
- Do not leave the power switch on after the batteries have lost their charge. When you finish using the Game Boy, always slide the power switch OFF.
- Do not recharge the batteries.
- Do not put the batteries in backwards. Make sure that the positive (+) and negative (-) ends are facing in the correct directions. Insert the negative end first. When removing batteries, remove the positive end first.

CARS

Here is an introduction to the cars that appear in SEGA RALLY™. Note that the cars listed on p.30 through p.31 are available by default, however the 3 cars referred on p.32 are available by purchase only.

MITSUBISHI LANCER EVOLUTION

When this car was introduced into rally racing, its engine, drive source, and suspensions were modified to suit its new venue. Its high engine power allows it to retain its power, even when entering tight corners at high speeds.

SUBARU IMPREZA

This car's greatest asset is its engine, with a full torque and wide power end. It's a very well balanced car, that allows the driver to handle any road conditions and corners smoothly.

TOYOTA COROLLA

The "COROLLA" is known as the rally car developed by Toyota for the WRC after a 2 year break. It's characterized by its 3SGTE engine, and smaller wheel size in comparison to the Celica. This allows it to have uncompromised stability around corners.

FORD FOCUS RS

Created by the Ford Motor Company as an alternate to the "FORD ESCORT," the "FOCUS" has a great driving force that allows it to tackle even the toughest gravel roads. It is reliable in tough environments, such as those in rally racing.

PEUGEOT PEUGEOT 206 WRC 1999

This vehicle has remained the Defending Champion with its innovative design. It especially shines on smooth gravel environments.

LANCIA

STRATOS HF

With a Ferrari Dino engine in the side set Midship, the "STRATOS HF" has been in competition since 1973. It weighs 950kg, packs 270ps power and has a MR driving system. This overall package helps this vehicle flourish as one of the legendary rally machines.

LANCIA

DELTA HF INTEGRALE

Awarded for the Manufacturer's Title for 6 years running, this vehicle is known for having a wide tread as well as a highly rigid body, and for great stability around corners. Quick handling is required due to its short wheel base.

TOYOTA

CELICA GT-FOUR ST205

Developed to substitute the glorious ST185 that brought TOYOTA the first double title in 1993, the "ST205" has kept audiences enthralled since its first SEGA RALLY™ CHAMPIONSHIP. It has a great aerodynamic look due to its low nose that also makes it stylish.

Course consisting of roads with sand and earth in a desert area.

MOUNTAIN

Tarmac roads in a mountainous area are the base of this course.
